Evolving Sophistication in Downtown Seattle for Over 30 Years

Classy. Stylish. Evolving. For more than 30 years, Robert Leonard Salon & Day Spa has been redefining what sophistication means to Seattle. Nestled in the up & coming Denny Triangle neighborhood, Robert Leonard offers an accessible alternative to a trendier, luxury hair salon experience for the busy professional. Robert Leonard's team of expertly-trained stylists work with each guest and their lifestyle to create a uniquely sophisticated look.

"Robert Leonard is a place only the best of the best thrive," said Becca Stordahl, owner of Robert Leonard. "Each stylist has a fierce passion for their craft, and take pride in the lengths they go to make every client's visit one to remember. We're always working towards a high standard of evolving sophistication, striving to meet - and exceed - what you'd expect from a luxury salon experience."

Founded in 1976 by salon visionaries John Martin and Robert Salmons, Robert Leonard was the first of its kind to offer salon and spa services under the same roof. Over 30 years later, it remains one of the leading salons in the Downtown Seattle area. Under the leadership and direction of Becca Stordahl and her husband Eric, the salon has grown tremendously, with a fresh outlook and its proverbial finger on the pulse of Seattle's fastest-growing neighborhood.
